A. P. Burnham of 28 Perry street, an engineer on the M. & W. R. railroad, who has been detained at home for the past two weeks by a serious attack of the grip, was able to be out of doors to-day for the first time since his illness.

J. Wallace Grady, formerly engaged in the tailoring business in Barre, who has been passing several months in the West, has returned to the city for a stay of indefinite length. Mr. Grady is with his family here and will not return to his place of business in Mexico City for some time.

The board of aldermen will hold its first regular session for business at the council chamber this evening at 7 o'clock. Interest in the meeting centers around the probability that Mayor Robert Gordon will send in the nominations of several candidates for offices for the consideration of the board. At a special meeting Friday night, 23 officers were filled, although a few of the more important berths are yet to be filled.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the neighbors and friends for the kindness shown during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father, especially those who visited and comforted him during his illness; also for the many beautiful flowers.

Mrs. J. Forbes,
Thomas Forbes,
William Forbes,
John Forbes,
Mr. and Mrs. George White.

TALK OF THE TOWN

R. H. Walker for the capture of the escaped prisoner.

The Chromatic club met at the home of Miss Spear last evening for the study of "The Bohemian Girl" as a type of the ballad opera. Miss Lillian Geake contributed an interesting account of the life of Michael Balfe, after which the story of "The Bohemian Girl" was very effectively read by Miss Eva-Annie Bissbee. At intervals during the reading, the best known ballads from the opera were sung by Miss Bella McHardy. After the final number of the study program, Miss McHardy responded to repeated requests by singing a group of old Scotch songs, for which she was warmly applauded.

Local talent will be employed to assist Miss Florence S. Hinckley of Montpelier in her recital at the Hedding Methodist church this evening at 8 o'clock. The following program has been arranged for the entertainment: Organ selection; "A Reasonable Courtship" (Myrtle Reed); Miss Hinckley; piano duet, Miss Doris and Corinne Eastman; (a) "Sh-sh," (b) "Neddy's Thanksgiving" (Eugene Field); (c) "That Wild, White Rose;" Miss Hinckley; vocal solo, Miss Mildred Higgs; piano solo, Miss Marion Anchor; "Peg O' My Heart," arranged by J. Hartley Manners; Miss Hinckley; organ selection.

MONTPELIER

Montpelier High School Defeated Dartmouth Freshmen, 45 to 30.

Three years ago the Dartmouth freshman basketball team journeyed all the way from Hanover, N. H., only to be defeated by the local high school team and last evening in armory hall history repeated itself, only the present high school five will not claim such honors, inasmuch as the visitors played under the title of Hanover Independents. The visitors had the regular freshman team with one exception, but they were outplayed by the high school, with the single exceptions of the first minutes of the first half and the closing minutes of the final period. The Dartmouth team endeavored to play a short passing, dribbling game, looking toward individual play more than to teamwork and it was that style which defeated them. Brown and Laird, the former a Spaulding high graduate, and the latter an erstwhile Montpelier high star, proved to be the big scoring factors for their side, each caging five baskets, several of those by Brown being made after spectacular dashes down the long floor.

For Montpelier, Clark, as usual, excelled, but he led Gross only by a small margin, for the latter played the best game of the season on the local floor and, with Jangraw, made enough baskets in the final half to keep the visitors from the lead. Clark made nine baskets in the first half but his guard came back wiser and more determined and the sum total of his efforts in the final period was one basket. The locals, however, always had a big lead and had the Hanover five badly defeated until the last five minutes, when Loudon, Laird and Brown caged six baskets in quick succession from the middle of the hall. The summary:

Montpelier. Hanover.
Clark, rf. Gross, lf.
Gross, lf. Jangraw, rf.
Jangraw, rf. Laird, rf.
Pape, rf. Loudon, rf.
Smith, lg. McMahon, lg.

The score—Montpelier 45, Hanover Independents 30. Baskets from the floor—Clark 10, Gross 7, Jangraw 5, Laird 5, Brown 5, Loudon 3, McMahon. From fouls—Loudon 2, Clark. Referee—Dole. Timer—Cullen. Time—Twenty-minute periods.

Mayor James M. Routwell, who has been confined to the house by illness since the first of the month, was able yesterday to drive downtown to his office in the city hall.

Five divorce cases were filed to-day with the county clerk as follows: Georgia A. Moody vs. William H. Moody; Philomena Weightman vs. Henry Weightman; Robert Cruickshank vs. Shurline Cruickshank; Norma Pedrazo vs. John Pedrazo; John J. Mason vs. Gladys M. Mason.

Fred L. Laird, Jr., a student at Dartmouth college, arrived in the city last evening to spend the Easter vacation with his parents in this city.

Word was received in the city last evening by David Spicer of 73 Main street advising him of the death of his brother, Alexander Spicer, at Fanny Allen hospital, Winoski, where he had submitted to an operation a week ago for intestinal trouble. He died at 5:30 o'clock and the body will probably be taken to Marshfield, where he resided for many years, for burial. The deceased was born in May, 1849, at Freilichburg, P. Q., the son of David and Margaret Cooper Spicer. He was one of the youngest persons to enlist in the Union army during the Civil war, for when but 13 years old he enlisted in the 15th Massachusetts regiment at Hanover, Mass.

He served two years but was captured and thrown into Andersonville prison a few months after enlisting and was confined there 14 months and 11 days. Returning from the war he went to Marshfield, where his father had removed during his absence. With the exception of a few years when he lived in Montpelier, where he was a member of the volunteer fire department, and in Hardwick the last few years with his son, the deceased made his home in Marshfield, being in the contracting and lumbering business. He was one of a family of 10 children, only one, David, of this city, now surviving. The deceased was twice married, first to Rhoda Bancroft, who died in 1890, and then to Mrs. Ellen Paul of Lynn, Mass., who died in 1902. He leaves six children as follows: Alexander J., of Manchester, N. H.; Cornelius of Woodbury, John and Albert of Hardwick and Eugene of Plainfield, and one daughter, Bessie Spicer of Barton. To the oldest son will be handed down a medal which was awarded Major Alexander Spicer of the English army for services at the battle of Waterloo, the medal having been handed down from generation to generation.
